A Message from the Club For Parents

Just as our teams, the Club cannot function without a large number of volunteers. For more information see below

Please note that in addition to its excellent youth programme and teams, the club also fields a variety of competitive and recreational teams for men, women and old-timers (over 35). We also have a soccer fitness programme for women. If you are interested please see our website or contact our VP Adults Mark Zamparo adults@ottawasoccer.com.

For Players

Joining an organized recreational team means making a commitment ... to your teammates, to your coach, and to yourself. You are part of their success, and they are part of yours. Even while you are training to build your own soccer skills, you are training to help them build theirs. Because you depend on each other, it is important to remember that all of you will learn more and have more fun if you respect each other and your coaches, and respect the work that you do together.

Your role in the OISC:

The OISC is run by the volunteer efforts of parents and adult players. Without the continuing efforts of many people, the Club cannot present the wide range of playing and training opportunities currently available. Your help is needed to maintain current services and build for the future. There are administrative and coaching assignments waiting for you: these include ongoing, short-term or even one-time tasks...something for everyone!

While every team needs volunteers, and we all support the Icebreaker tournament, the Club as a whole needs many people to assist in many interesting and challenging tasks. Examples include: director of operations, field director, head referee, treasurer. Please contact your Vice President to discuss what contribution you might make to help maintain the Ottawa Internationals as the best soccer Club in Ottawa.
